RESOLUTION

The following resolution was offered and placed in the Committee on Rules.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 923

Offered by Representative Rose:

WHEREAS, TECH 2006 is celebrating its 15th anniversary at the State Capitol Building in Springfield on February 16, 2006, at which students and teachers from throughout Illinois will demonstrate to State legislators and other visitors the vast number of ways that students are using technology to learn; and

WHEREAS, More than 5,500 Illinois students of all ages have benefited from participating in TECH 2006 school technology demonstrations since 1991; and

WHEREAS, TECH 2006 is a statewide initiative representing every legislative district in Illinois and supported by a broad range of education and business organizations to increase awareness about classroom technology and the role it plays in preparing students for the workplace of their future; and

WHEREAS, Due to a commitment to improving technology education, Illinois advanced from 49th place in 1998 in educational technology to 1st place in the nation by 2002; and

WHEREAS, The need to provide professional development that empowers Illinois teachers to become 21st century learners who can prepare their students for the challenges of the 21st century continues; and

WHEREAS, Awareness and support for educational technology must be increased by raising its visibility in a positive context and by communicating that information fluency and 21st century skills are valuable and necessary for the future of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Administrators, teachers, and students encourage the State of Illinois to provide sufficient funding to support technology, telecommunications, and Internet access in order to accomplish the goals and objectives of the State educational technology plan, as well as district and school improvement efforts;

therefore, be it

HOUSE RESOLUTION 914

Offered by Representative Brosnahan:

WHEREAS, Citizens of our State who place themselves in harm's way to protect the public are worthy of recognition; and

WHEREAS, It has come to our attention that Oak Lawn Police Chief Robert V. Smith, Jr., is retiring from his position after 32 years of protecting and serving the citizens of Oak Lawn; his distinguished career has included countless successful law enforcement operations that helped protect his community; and

WHEREAS, Chief Smith, a fourth-generation police officer, began his career with the Oak Lawn Police Department in 1974 as a patrol officer; in the detective division from 1980 until 2002, he served as acting sergeant, sergeant, lieutenant, and as chief of detectives; he began his term as Chief of Police in 2002; and

WHEREAS, He has earned many honors during his time on the force, including a Citation of Merits from the V.F.W., the Medal of Honor from the Cook County Sheriff, FBI Recognition, the United States Secret Service Award, 23 Meritorious Service Awards, 37 Department Honorable Mentions, the Police Officer of the Year Award in 1982, and the Drug Enforcement Administrators Award; and

WHEREAS, He valiantly served his country as a member of the United States Marine Corps from 1969 to 1971; he holds a bachelor's degree in criminal social justice from Lewis University and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy; he also has an Associate in Applied Science from Daley Community College, and he attended Moraine Valley Community College as well; he graduated from Bogan High School in Chicago; and

WHEREAS, His dedication and commitment of the full resources of the Oak Lawn Police Department during the Jesse Quintanilla investigation in 1998 and the pseudoephedrine investigations in 2001-2003 enabled the DEA, the U.S. Attorney's Office, and other law enforcement agencies to successfully investigate, prosecute, and convict many of the area's most significant narcotic traffickers; he was officially recognized by the DEA and by U.S. Attorney Patrick J. Fitzgerald for his support of such investigations; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we congratulate Oak Lawn Police Chief Robert V. Smith, Jr., on the occasion of his retirement, and we express our sincere gratitude for his willingness to serve his community and our State for the past 32 years; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Chief Smith as an expression of our esteem and with best wishes for a relaxing retirement.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 919

Offered by Representative Monique Davis:

WHEREAS, State Representative Monique D. Davis and the members of the House of Representatives of the State of Illinois learned with regret of the death of Dr. James Walker, the first African-American person to serve as president of the two-campus, 35,000-student Southern Illinois University system (SIU), on Sunday, February 5, 2006; and

WHEREAS, An Alabama native, Dr. Walker received his bachelor's degree in biology from Alabama State University in 1963, his master's degree in special education from Atlanta University in 1967, and his doctorate in education in 1972 from Penn State University; he was also a graduate of the Harvard University Institute for Educational Management; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Walker came to SIU from the president's job at Middle Tennessee State University in 2000; he was recognized as one of the most accomplished and dedicated higher education professionals in this country; he is remembered by his successor at SIU as a caring and decent man who accomplished a great deal for Southern Illinois University through his positive outlook on life and his wonderful sense of humor and is credited with providing stable and experienced leadership to the SIU system at a critical point in its history; and

WHEREAS, During his tenure, SIU received millions of dollars in federal research grants involving coal, agriculture, biofuels, health care, and education; he also oversaw various big-money construction projects, including the $40 million renovation of the Carbondale campus' Morris Library and work toward the university's $21 million Cancer Institute planned in Springfield; during his tenure at SIU, private contributions to the university's foundation rose by 30 percent; and

WHEREAS, He spent more than three decades in higher education, his first job was as an assistant professor of education at SIU in Edwardsville; before serving as Middle Tennessee State's president for about a decade, he was provost and vice president for academic affairs at the University of Northern Colorado; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we mourn the passing of Dr. James Walker, and we extend our sincere condolences to his family, friends, and all who knew and loved him; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to his family as an expression of our deepest sympathy.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 920

Offered by Representative Monique Davis:

WHEREAS, It is the privilege of this Body to recognize milestone events in the history of organizations in this State; and

WHEREAS, The DuPage County chapter of the NAACP is celebrating its 50th anniversary; and

WHEREAS, The history of the NAACP is one of blood sweat and tears; from bold investigations of mob brutality, protests of mass murders, segregation and discrimination to testimony before congressional committees on the vicious tactics used to bar African Americans from the ballot box, it has been the talent and tenacity of NAACP members that saved lives and changed many negative aspects of American society; and

WHEREAS, From the ballot box to the classroom, the dedicated workers, organizers, and leaders who forged this great organization and maintain its status as a champion of social justice fought long and hard to ensure that the voices of African Americans would be heard; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we congratulate the DuPage County chapter of the NAACP on the occasion of its 50th anniversary, and we commend the organization for its work on behalf of minorities; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to the DuPage County chapter of the NAACP as an expression of our esteem.

HOUSE RESOLUTION 922

Offered by Representative Feigenholtz:

WHEREAS, The members of the House of Representatives of the State of Illinois learned with sadness of the death of Betty Friedan, a former citizen of Illinois and pioneer of women's rights in America, who passed away on February 4, 2006; and

WHEREAS, She was born Bettye Naomi Goldstein on February 4, 1921, in Peoria, where she spent her childhood; she later went on to graduate summa cum laude from Smith College in 1942; after her graduation, she studied psychology for one year at the University of California Berkeley; and

WHEREAS, She was married to Carl Friedan from 1947 until 1969 and was blessed with three children; as a result of her pregnancy in 1952, Ms. Friedan was fired from her journalism job, leading her to question the way American society treated women in the workforce; and

WHEREAS, During her marriage she began to work on her first book, "The Feminine Mystique", a book which many site as the starting point of the modern women's rights movement; her book, which was simultaneously applauded and condemned, spoke to women from all walks of life and addresses what she called "the problem with no name", one in which women were leading the lives society expected from them, but finding themselves unfulfilled; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Friedan encouraged women to follow their dreams, including those of work outside the home, while at the same time urging people not to turn their back on their family; it was her belief, a radical belief at the time, that a woman could be a wife, mother, and lead a rewarding and fulfilling professional life; she went on to become an accomplished author, writing such books as "The Second Stage", "It Changed My Life", "Writings on the Women's Movement", and "The Fountain of Age"; she also helped organize the National Organization of Women and served as the organization's president from 1966 to 1970; and

WHEREAS, Women throughout America owe a debt of gratitude to Betty Friedan for her pioneering leadership in the field of women's rights and her adherence to the radical idea "Women are people too"; therefore, be it

RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we mourn the passing of Betty Friedan, who championed the cause of women's rights and will forever be remembered as a groundbreaker for the cause, and we extend our deepest sympathy to her family, friends, and all who knew and loved her; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to her family as an expression of our sincerest condolences for their loss.
